

Public Hearing Notice

Sixth Cycle Regional Housing Needs Assessment (RHNA) Appeals Hearing

Public Notice is hereby given that the Association of Bay Area Governments (ABAG) will conduct a public hearing on the dates identified below to hear appeals of the draft regional housing need allocations distributed to local jurisdictions as part of the Draft RHNA Allocation Plan released by ABAG on May 25, 2021. These public hearings will be held as part of ABAG's effort to prepare a Final RHNA Plan for the ABAG region in accordance with state law.

This public hearing is being held pursuant to Government Code Section 65584.05(d) and provides opportunity for jurisdictions that filed appeals to provide testimony before the RHNA Administrative Committee as part of the Committee's determination on appeals. In addition, the public hearings are part of ABAG's efforts relating to the Sixth Cycle RHNA process and preparing a Final RHNA Allocation Plan as required by the State for local jurisdictions to prepare updated General Plan Housing Elements. Each hearing is a continuation of the prior appeals hearing.

The public hearing and subsequent continuations will occur as follows. Hearing accessibility instructions (Zoom Link) also will be posted to: <https://abag.ca.gov/meetings> no less than 72 hours prior to the hearing and the continuations.
