Danville Civic Center - Regional Meeting Room
September 27, 2000
12:30 – 3:00 PM

lunch will be provided for Partnership members

I. WELCOME, INTRODUCTIONS

The chair of this meeting, Mayor Millie Greenberg of Danville will make brief opening remarks and ask members to introduce themselves.

II. BUDGET AND WORK PROGRAM

As a result of the approval of State funding for the IRP Pilot Project, the Partnership must now set a work program and budget to complete the project. Staff has drafted a preliminary budget for Partnership review and comment.

Action requested:

- Provide IRP staff with general direction regarding the budget and work program
- Authorize IRP staff to finalize budget and work program, and contract with the State Department of Housing and Community Development

III. DISCUSSION OF INCENTIVES

One facet of the Pilot Project will be developing a set of incentives to be used to attract economic and or housing development to the Jobs/Housing Opportunity Zones. Professor Richard LeGates, of San Francisco State University, has developed a preliminary set of housing related incentives. James King, of Applied Development Economics, is working to create a list of economic development related incentives. Both consultants will present their work to date.

IV. Next meeting reminder

January 2001, place to be announced.
