- ABAG failed to adequately consider information submitted in the Local Jurisdiction Survey regarding RHNA Factors (Government Code Section 65584.04(e)) and Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing (See Government Code Section 65584.04(b)(2) and 65584(d)(5)):
- Existing and projected jobs and housing relationship.
 - Sewer or water infrastructure constraints for additional development due to laws, regulatory actions, or decisions made by a provider other than the local jurisdiction.
 - Availability of land suitable for urban development or for conversion to residential use.
 - Lands protected from urban development under existing federal or state programs.
 - County policies to preserve prime agricultural land.
 - Distribution of household growth assumed for Plan Bay Area 2050.
 - County-city agreements to direct growth toward incorporated areas of county.
 - Loss of units contained in assisted housing developments.
 - Households paying more than 30% or 50% of their income in rent.
 - The rate of overcrowding.
 - Housing needs of farmworkers.
 - Housing needs generated by the presence of a university campus within a jurisdiction.
 - Housing needs of individuals and families experiencing homelessness.
 - Loss of units during a declared state of emergency from January 31, 2015 to February 5, 2020.
 - The region's greenhouse gas emissions targets to be met by Plan Bay Area 2050.
 - Affirmatively furthering fair housing.
- ABAG failed to determine the jurisdiction's Draft RHNA Allocation in accordance with the Final RHNA Methodology and in a manner that furthers, and does not undermine the RHNA Objectives (see Government Code Section 65584(d) for the RHNA Objectives).
- A significant and unforeseen change in circumstances has occurred in the local jurisdiction or jurisdictions that merits a revision of the information submitted in the Local Jurisdiction Survey (appeals based on change of circumstance can only be made by the jurisdiction or jurisdictions where the change occurred).

Pursuant to Government Code Section 65584.05, appeals shall be based upon comparable data available for all affected jurisdictions and accepted planning methodology, and supported by adequate documentation, and shall include a statement as to why the revision is necessary to further the intent of the objectives listed in Government Code Section 65584(d). An appeal shall be consistent with, and not to the detriment of, the development pattern in the sustainable communities strategy \(Plan Bay Area 2050 Final Blueprint\). (Click here)

The Town of Windsor is appealing its Sixth Cycle Draft Regional Housing Needs Allocation (RHNA) based on the following grounds for appeal identified in Government Code Section 65584.5(b):

- ABAG failed to determine the jurisdiction’s Draft RHNA Allocation in accordance with the Final RHNA Methodology and in a manner that furthers, and does not undermine, the RHNA Objectives.

The Town finds that the following RHNA Objectives have not been met:

- Increasing the housing supply and the mix of housing types, tenure and affordability in all cities and counties within the region in an equitable manner, which shall result in each jurisdiction receiving an allocation of units for low- and very low-income households; and
- Promoting infill development and socioeconomic equity, the protection of environmental and agricultural resources, the encouragement of efficient development patterns, and the achievement of the region’s greenhouse gas reductions targets provided by the State Air Resources Board pursuant to Government Code Section 65080.

RE: Town of Windsor Appeal of 6th Cycle RHNA

Dear Mr. Arreguin:

The Town of Windsor hereby submits an appeal to the Association of Bay Area Governments (ABAG) of ABAG's Draft Sixth Cycle Regional Housing Needs Allocation (RHNA) based on the following grounds for appeal identified in Government Code Section 65584.5(b):

- ABAG failed to determine the jurisdiction's Draft RHNA Allocation in accordance with the Final RHNA Methodology and in a manner that furthers, and does not undermine, the RHNA Objectives.

The Town finds that the following RHNA Objectives have not been met:

- Increasing the housing supply and the mix of housing types, tenure and affordability in all cities and counties within the region in an equitable manner, which shall result in each jurisdiction receiving an allocation of units for low- and very low-income households; and
- Promoting infill development and socioeconomic equity, the protection of environmental and agricultural resources, the encouragement of efficient development patterns, and the achievement of the region's greenhouse gas reductions targets provided by the State Air Resources Board pursuant to Government Code Section 65080.

The Town finds that the Draft RHNA was not developed in an equitable manner and did not take into account encouragement of efficient development patterns.

Following a yearlong effort, the Housing Methodology Committee (HMC) brought forward a recommended methodology for how the Bay Area RHNA would be distributed. Based on the HMC's recommendation, which included a draft methodology using data from Plan Bay Area 2050, Windsor's anticipated RHNA number was 652 units, a 48% increase over the existing 440 units in the current cycle. During the yearlong HMC process, several members introduced the idea of an equity adjustment that would look at each jurisdiction's divergence index score and percent of the jurisdictions above moderate households. The result added additional very low- and low-income allocations to jurisdictions that do not have a proportional share of the region's total households in 2020, including the Town of Windsor. However, the HMC voted to not include the equity adjustment and the draft methodology was moved forward for consideration by the ABAG Regional Planning Committee based only on Plan Bay Area 2050.

During the January 14, 2021 Regional Planning Committee (Committee) meeting, the HMC members that initially brought forward the equity adjustment idea presented it to the Committee. The Committee voted at that meeting to recommend that the ABAG Executive Board adopt the draft methodology, including the equity adjustment.

The next week, on January 21, 2021, with no notification to affected jurisdictions, the Executive Board adopted the draft methodology, including the equity adjustment.

The Town of Windsor does not dispute the fact that housing is needed in the Bay Area, and particularly affordable housing. However, the lack of information or clear understanding that ABAG was able to provide on the equity adjustment formula, and the fact that the equity adjustment was not pursued by the HMC and clearly dismissed, needs to be taken into consideration. The equity adjustment was brought in at the last minute for action at the Regional Planning Committee with no notice or input from affected jurisdictions. The swift approval of the equity adjustment by the ABAG Executive Board, only one week after it was brought at the last minute to the Regional Planning Committee, with no apparent interest in feedback from jurisdictions or the community, as evidenced by the allowance of only one minute for comments by affected jurisdictions or the public, and with no clear explanation of how the formula works, indicates a failure in the process.

The Town of Windsor finds the following areas were specifically disregarded during the RHNA process:

- Lack of consideration of current population trends. The Town of Windsor is aware that, pursuant to Government Code Section 65584.04(g)(3), stable population growth from the previous regional housing needs cycle cannot be used as a justification for a determination or reduction in a jurisdiction's share of the regional housing need. However, for the second straight year, the California Department of Finance (DOF) has estimated that the Town's population has decreased. Between January 2019 and January 2021, the Town lost approximately 633 people, for a total current population of 27,855. This represents a 2.2% reduction in population over the last two years.
- The fact that, while Windsor's 5th Cycle RHNA is not currently being met, the Town is clearly able to process and approve residential projects, both affordable and market rate, in a timely manner. The Town has 998 residential units entitled and pending issuance of building permits, 10% of which will be affordable to lower income households. The Town also has 1,407 units pending entitlement approval, 29% of which will be affordable to lower income households. The issue is not the Town's ability to approve housing projects, the issue is that developers are not constructing, something the Town does not have control of.

- Lack of consideration of the need for city-centered growth. While the Town of Windsor received a 126% increase from the 5th Cycle RHNA, some of the more urban jurisdictions actually saw reductions in their RHNA from the 5th Cycle to the 6th Cycle. This is contrary to the intent of Plan Bay Area 2050. These jurisdictions are already planning for significant growth around their downtowns and transit stations, where higher density is expected, and the fact that they are seeing a reduction in units illustrates a clear flaw in the methodology.

Based on the forgoing, the Town of Windsor respectfully requests that ABAG eliminate the additional units added with the equity adjustment, reducing the Town of Windsor's 6th Cycle RHNA back down to the previously proposed 652 (a reduction of 342 units).
