5. Adjournment of Workshop Day 1 with Dinner to follow.

The Workshop will continue on Thursday, October 29, 2026 at 9:00 a.m.

Public Comment: The public is encouraged to comment on agenda items at meetings by completing a request-to-speak card (available from the Clerk) and passing it to the Clerk. Public comment may be limited by any of the procedures set forth in Section 3.09 of MTC's Procedures Manual (Resolution No. 1058, Revised) if, in the chair's judgment, it is necessary to maintain the orderly flow of business.

Meeting Conduct: If this meeting is willfully interrupted or disrupted by one or more persons rendering orderly conduct of the meeting unfeasible, the Chair may order the removal of individuals who are willfully disrupting the meeting. Such individuals may be arrested. If order cannot be restored by such removal, the members of the meeting body may direct that the meeting room be cleared (except for representatives of the press or other news media not participating in the disturbance), and the session may continue.

Record of Meeting: Meetings are recorded. Copies of recordings are available at a nominal charge, or recordings may be listened to at MTC offices by appointment. Audiocasts are maintained on MTC's Web site (mtc.ca.gov) for public review for at least one year.

Metropolitan Transportation Commission 2026 Commission Workshop (Day 1)

October 28, 2026

Agenda Item 2a-26-2194

Session Overview and Presentation of Findings

Subject:

The workshop facilitator will lead the Commission through a discussion of strategic leadership and the Commission's regional role, grounded in the agency's Strategic Framework and Plan Bay Area 2050+.

Background:

Day 1 of the 2026 Commission Workshop opens with an overview and a presentation of findings led by an external facilitator, Janette S. Williams from The Centre for Organization Effectiveness. The Metropolitan Transportation Commission guides a region of more than 7.6 million residents across nine counties and 101 cities. The agency has a Strategic Framework to set its internal vision, goals and objectives and staff look to Plan Bay Area 2050+, the region's long-range plan, to guide its externally facing priorities through its four focus areas (transportation, housing, environment and economy), 35 strategies and 55 implementation actions.

The facilitator will set this regional and organizational context and present the key themes that frame the day's discussion, establishing a shared starting point for the Commission before it turns to the activities that follow, as shown in Attachment A.

Next Steps:

The themes presented in this item frame the facilitated activities that follow during the workshop.

Metropolitan Transportation Commission 2026 Commission Workshop (Day 1)

October 28, 2026

Agenda Item 3a-26-2195

Activity #1

Subject:

A facilitated discussion on how Commissioners balance their regional role with their local responsibilities, and how a regional approach can support them in meeting local challenges.

Background:

Commissioners serve a dual role: advancing the interests of the region as a whole while representing the communities they come from. These responsibilities often coexist, and the strongest regional outcomes depend on reconciling them. In this facilitated discussion, Commissioners will consider the local challenges they face and how a coordinated regional approach can support their efforts to address them, grounded in the agency's Strategic Framework and Plan Bay Area 2050+.

Next Steps:

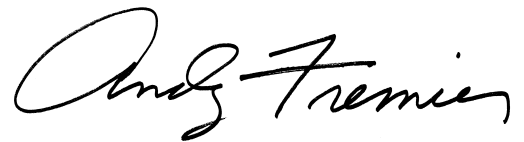

Input from the discussion will inform the Commission's shared understanding of its regional role and carry into the strategic leadership conversation that follows.

Metropolitan Transportation Commission 2026 Commission Workshop (Day 1)

October 28, 2026

Agenda Item 3b-26-2196

Activity #2

Subject:

A facilitated discussion on the attributes of effective regional leadership and on fostering a culture of strong communication.

Background:

Building on the day's earlier discussion, Commissioners will consider the attributes that define strong regional leadership and the role that open, consistent communication plays in advancing the Commission's shared priorities. The conversation aims to strengthen alignment on how the Commission leads, and how Commissioners work together, for the region in the years ahead.

Next Steps:

The themes from the discussion will inform the Commission's approach to its shared priorities and ongoing collaboration.
